Summer Arts Studios begins April 12, 2022, at 12 p.m.

Mesa, AZ - Mesa Arts Center is thrilled to announce the 2022 Summer Art Studio and Summer Arts in Service class lineup. Find your creative spark by immersing yourself in the extraordinary world of making art with classes in Glass, Jewelry, Welding, Ceramics, Printmaking and Blacksmithing.

Arts in Service classes are free for veterans and service members. Summer class offerings include Glass, Jewelry, Welding, Ceramics, Printmaking and Blacksmithing. All classes are appropriate for beginners and do not require any previous art experience. All materials are included with registration. Arts in Service is sponsored by The Boeing Company, Salt River Pima Maricopa Indian Community and in part by the Arizona Department of Veterans' Services as made available through the Arizona Veterans' Donation Fund.

Adult Art Studio Classes include classes in a variety of mediums, including Movement, Theater, Ceramics, Metal Sculpture, Welding, Blacksmithing, Jewelry, Glass, Painting, Drawing, Photography and Printmaking. Classes are available at all skill levels, with many beginning classes that do not require any art experience.

Youth Art Studio Classes include Jewelry, Photography, Acting, Ceramics, Printmaking, Drawing, Painting and more! Plus, Arts Camps for youth and teens are back! MAC's Arts Camps are designed to keep kids engaged and inspired all summer long. Kids can choose from a range of camps, including Photogram Teen Camp, Let's Make a Play Summer Teen Camp, Ceramics Youth Camp, Visual Arts Camp and more!

New this Summer! Arts Studios is launching The Art of Podcasting. The camp will allow students to explore the art and science of podcasting through this immersive deep dive into modern storytelling creation. From ideation to actualization, participants will develop a sharable podcast of their own design. Students will work with podcast professionals and gain valuable skills in script development, recording and editing a podcast and collaborating with peers in the podcast-making process.
