MEET THE STAFF

MEET LEAD JEWELRY AND METALS INSTRUCTOR, POLLY O'DETTE.

Polly O'Dette directs the programs for the Metalsmithing and Jewelry, Sculpture and Photography Studios for Mesa Arts Center. Born and raised in Arizona, the artist has lived most of her life in the desert southwest. She has a Masters of Fine Arts from New Mexico State University. Her current body of work is focused on desert nests and is inspired by various bird and animal nests and the varied materials used to create a safe, comfortable home often in the midst of protective thorns or the dramatic spikes of agave. Made of formed and enameled copper and cast bronze, these diminutive nests reflect the surprising variety of textures, and colors of the desert as the seasons change.

MEET LEAD DRAWING, PAINTING AND PRINTMAKING INSTRUCTOR, AGUSTÍN VARGAS.

As an artist and architect, Agustín's fascination with ancient techniques, such as silver point, and gold leaf, watercolor, egg tempera, oil and acrylic are found in all his work. His artwork is in numerous private and corporate collections in the U.S, Mexico, and Italy.

Agustín has taught architecture and plastic arts at both the University of México City and the University of Juarez, México and has privately instructed students at his private studio since 1985.

As the Lead Instructor of Drawing, Painting and Printmaking at Mesa Arts Center, Agustín shares his knowledge of techniques and composition with his students.
