Passage (Pasaje)

Cannupa Hanska Luger

May 14-August 8, 2021

Main Gallery & Project Room

MCA Museum at Mesa Arts Center is proud to present the collaborative, site-specific exhibition Passage by renowned multidisciplinary artist Cannupa Hanska Luger (Mandan, Hidatsa, Arikara, Lakota, Austrian and Norwegian). The centerpiece of the installation, Something to Hold Onto, is Luger's second project from his Counting Coup series and is an immersive installation of 7,000+ 1-inch unfired clay beads. Each bead represents a life lost along the US-Mexico border in the last 30 years and is intended to humanize these staggering statistics. The installation is mirrored by a large-scale floor mural by Phoenix based artists Thomas 'Breeze' Marcus (Tohono O'odham) and Dwayne Manuel (Tohono O'odham). The exhibition will be accompanied by artwork and a pop-up educational experience by Tanya Aguiñiga (Mexican) and journalistic documentation by Thosh Collins (Tohono O'odham) Chelsey Luger (Turtle Mountain Band de Chippewa, Standing Rock Lakota Nation).

El Museo de Arte Contemporáneo de Mesa en el Centro de Artes de Mesa se enorgullece en presentar la exposición colaborativa y exclusiva: Pasaje, del reconocido artista multidisciplinario Cannupa Hanska Luger (mandan, hidatsa, arikara, lakota, austriaco y noruego). La pieza central de la instalación, Something to Hold Onto (Algo en que aferrarse), es el segundo proyecto de Luger de su serie Counting Coup y es una instalación de inmersión que contiene más de 7,000 trozos de arcilla sin cocer (para ensartar) de una pulgada. Cada pedacito de barro representa una vida perdida a lo largo de la frontera entre los Estados Unidos y México en los últimos 30 años y tiene la intención de ver el lado humano de estas alarmantes estadísticas. La instalación se refleja en un mural de piso a gran escala realizado por los artistas de Phoenix Thomas 'Breeze' Marcus (Tohono O'odham) y Dwayne Manuel (Tohono O'odham). La exposición incluye obras de arte y una experiencia educativa emergente de Tanya Aguiñiga (Mexicana) y documentación periodística de Thosh Collins (Tohono O'odham) y Chelsey Luger (Turtle Mountain Band de Chippewa, Standing Rock Lakota Nation).

The Uncolonized: A Vision in the Parallel
Los no colonizados: una visión en paralelo
Angel Cabrales

El Paso sculptor and mixed media artist Angel Cabrales is known for his provocative social commentaries on the Latin-American experience. In his latest body of work, Cabrales reimagines history in a SciFi- inspired parallel universe, where the Western Hemisphere was never colonized. The exhibition centers on the Indigenous legacy of the Americas while celebrating the cultural heritage and technological achievements of its original inhabitants.

El escultor y artista en técnicas mixtas de El Paso, Ángel Cabrales, es conocido por sus provocativos mensajes sociales sobre la experiencia latinoamericana. En su último corpus de obra, Cabrales re-imagina la historia basada en un universo paralelo inspirado en la ciencia ficción. Una en la que el hemisferio oeste nunca fue colonizado. La exhibición se centra en la herencia indígena del continente americano al mismo tiempo que celebra el legado cultural y tecnológico de sus habitantes originarios.

The Myth of the Incomplete Self (El mito del yo incompleto)
Rodrigo de Toledo

Rodrigo de Toledo's exhibition takes us into the illuminated pages of a manuscript codex, where ancient and modern symbols are reinvented into a new context and iconography. Deities, creatures and myths from a lost civilization inhabit cosmo-mythological realms and archetypal diagrams, displayed on canvas, leather parchment, paper, and installation. The body of work, from 2005 to 2020, offers us a beautiful and delicate mythology of contemporary origin, in which the artist directly addresses the core of the human structure: our incompleteness – the illusion of separation from the cosmos.

La exposición de Rodrigo de Toledo nos lleva a las páginas iluminadas de un códice manuscrito, donde los símbolos antiguos y modernos se reinventan en un nuevo contexto e iconografía. Deidades, criaturas y mitos de una civilización perdida habitan reinos mitológicos del cosmos y diagramas arquetípicos, que se muestran en lienzo, pergamo de cuero, papel e instalaciones. Su colección de obras, de 2005 a 2020, nos ofrece una bella y delicada mitología de origen contemporáneo, en la que el artista aborda directamente el núcleo de la estructura humana: nuestro estado incompleto, la ilusión de separación del cosmos.

Work from the Permanent Collection
Obras de la colección permanente

As with most museums, the Mesa Contemporary Arts (MCA) Museum Docents are central in the functionality of the museum. Through their volunteer efforts and assistance, tours are conducted, artwork is researched, special talks are prepared, and opening receptions succeed. This exhibition was entirely curated by the MCA Museum Docents and demonstrates some of the research they have conducted on inspired works centered around Indigenous communities, peoples, and nations from the permanent collection.

Como ocurre con la mayoría de los museos, el trabajo de los docentes del Museo de Arte Contemporáneo de Mesa (MCA) es central para el buen funcionamiento de este. Gracias al esfuerzo de sus voluntarios y asistentes, se realizan recorridos, investigaciones de obras de arte, se preparan conversaciones y recepciones de apertura con éxito. La exposición fue curada en su totalidad por los docentes del MCA y muestra algunas de las investigaciones que han realizado en piezas de la colección permanente realizadas por artistas con ascendencia indígena de América del norte y del sur.
